Hi everyone,

Thanks for letting me tag along on this. I'm on a listening tour right now to learn all about what challenges are present for educators trying to start/operate schools in Downtown, so your insight would be extremely helpful.

I can do any of those times, except I'm free after 2 on Monday.

Best,

David & James,

I'd like to follow up on meeting about Value Schools and schools in general in Downtown Los Angeles. The Central City Association and the Downtown Center BID are working on a policy to help facilitate the location and construction of schools in DTLA and we would very much like to connect with you about your experience thus far and any potential plans for expansion. I'm copying Joanne Danganan who is working on the CCA side. Let me know what your schedules look like over the coming weeks.

Thanks.

Nick
